The Royal College of Physicians of Thailand

The Royal College of Physicians of Thailand was founded in 1993 under the Thai Medical Council Act and is based in the College of Physicians of Thailand. For the "Royal" in the title was part of the name of the rings of the Faculty of the Chulalongkorn University.

The objectives of the Royal College of Physicians of Thailand are described in Article 7 of the Thai Medical Council Act, 1993 and include:

2. Provide and set the academic standards of professional practice of specialists in academic disciplines related to Medicine in Thailand, including the control of professional ethics of specialists in academic disciplines related to Medicine.
3. Promote education, research and academic activities in academic disciplines related to Medicine.
4. Organize academic meetings and continuing education including other activities for its members.
5. Promote and maintain the professional status of its members.
6. Establish and maintain the professional status of its members.
7. Establish a good understanding and reciprocal harmony between in medicine and all members of the medical profession, both within Thailand and abroad.
8. Foster the activity related to the professions of the College, including educational purposes, research in Medicine and other related disciplines.
9. Promote academic activities related to Medicine for the benefit of the public and the improvement of the quality of education in Medicine.
10. Fulfill the terms of the College, within the jurisdiction of the Thai Medical Council Act, and other regulations prescribed by the Thai Medical Council.
11. Report the College's actions to the Thai Medical Council annually or periodicity.

Article 15: The College is empowered to appoint or associate members or members of the Royal College of Physicians of Thailand from other categories of membership, namely, specialists in medical sciences and those who have been appointed as honorary fellows in academic disciplines related to Medicine.

Article 16: The College is empowered to appoint or associate members or members of the Royal College of Physicians of Thailand from other categories of membership, namely, specialists in medical sciences and those who have been appointed as honorary fellows in academic disciplines related to Medicine.

The College is empowered to enact regulations and regulations prescribed by the Thai Medical Council, and other regulations prescribed by the Thai Medical Council.