The Royal College of Physicians of Thailand

The Royal College of Physicians of Thailand was founded in 1983 under the Thai Medical Council Act, 1974, as the College of Physicians of Thailand. The College is registered under the Medical Council Act of 1974.

The Royal College of Physicians of Thailand is incorporated as a non-profit organization for the benefit of the public, the advancement of medical knowledge, and the enhancement of the standards of medical practice.

The College is registered under the Medical Council Act, 1974, and the objectives of the College are as follows:

1. To improve the standards of medical practice.
2. To promote the advancement of medical knowledge.
3. To develop and maintain a register of physicians.
4. To provide a means by which the public can obtain information about the qualifications of physicians.
5. To promote the welfare of physicians.
6. To conduct research in the field of medicine.
7. To provide a forum for the discussion of medical and related matters.
8. To promote the interests of the College.
9. To carry out any other activities that are incidental to the above objectives.

The College is governed by a Council, which consists of the President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and honorary members.

The Council meets at least once a year to consider the business of the College.

The Royal College of Physicians of Thailand is a member of the World Medical Association and the Federation of Asian Medical Colleges.

The College has a number of committees, including the Education Committee, the Research Committee, and the Ethics Committee.

The College is funded by subscriptions, donations, and grants from governments, foundations, and other bodies.

The College has a membership of over 10,000 physicians, including both Thai and foreign members.

The College offers a range of services to its members, including continuing medical education, research grants, and travel grants for medical conferences.

The College is committed to the advancement of medical knowledge and the promotion of high standards of medical practice.

The Royal College of Physicians of Thailand is an important part of the medical community in Thailand and is recognized as a respected and influential body.

For further information, please contact the Royal College of Physicians of Thailand at:

Address: 1st Floor, Building B, Rama Medical Complex, 999 Rama 1 Road, Pathumthani 12120, Thailand

Telephone: +66 (0) 2 552 2546

Email: info@rcpt.org

Website: www.rcpt.org