The Royal College of Physicians of Thailand

The Royal College of Physicians of Thailand was founded in 1993 under the Thai Medical Council Act, 1976, known as the College of Physicians of Thailand, for the "Royal" in 2013.

The objectives of the Royal College of Physicians of Thailand are described in Article 4 of the

The Royal College of Physicians of Thailand Act 1993 with regard to academic disciplines related to Medicine. The functions of the College are as follows:

1. Conduct examinations for the specialist degree in academic disciplines related to Medicine.
2. Provide and set the academic standards of professional practice of specialist disciplines where there is a lack of systems and guidelines in the country, including the control of professional conduct in order to maintain and raise the level of professional excellence in all branches of Medicine.
3. Promote education, research and academic exchange in academic disciplines related to Medicine.
4. Organize academic meetings and conducting educational training activities for its members.
5. Set up the centers of communication and exchanges of academic and other activities for its members.
6. Annually and maintain the perpetual status of its members.
7. Establish a good understanding and reconcile any disputes between members and between Medicine, Medicine, Medicine and the College.
8. Establish the authority related to the efficiency of the College, including intellectual property, research in Medicine and other related disciplines.
9. Propagate academic knowledge related to Medicine for the benefit of the public and the College.
10. Defend the interest of the College within the jurisdiction of the Thai Medical Council Act and other regulations associated with the Thai Medical Council.
11. Report the College to the Thai Ministry of Education annually or periodically.

Article 3: The Royal College of Physicians of Thailand has been upgraded to the status of a Royal College under the Royal Decree No. 1223, R.C. 2535, as the Royal College of Physicians of Thailand as a Royal College under the Royal Decree No. 1223, R.C. 2535.

The objectives of the Royal College of Physicians of Thailand are to:

1. Conduct examinations for the specialist degree in academic disciplines related to Medicine.
2. Provide and set the academic standards of professional practice of specialist disciplines where there is a lack of systems and guidelines in the country, including the control of professional conduct in order to maintain and raise the level of professional excellence in all branches of Medicine.
3. Promote education, research and academic exchange in academic disciplines related to Medicine.
4. Organize academic meetings and conducting educational training activities for its members.
5. Set up the centers of communication and exchanges of academic and other activities for its members.
6. Annually and maintain the perpetual status of its members.
7. Establish a good understanding and reconcile any disputes between members and between Medicine, Medicine, Medicine and the College.
8. Establish the authority related to the efficiency of the College, including intellectual property, research in Medicine and other related disciplines.
9. Propagate academic knowledge related to Medicine for the benefit of the public and the College.
10. Defend the interest of the College within the jurisdiction of the Thai Medical Council Act and other regulations associated with the Thai Medical Council.
11. Report the College to the Thai Ministry of Education annually or periodically.

The Royal College of Physicians of Thailand has been upgraded to the status of a Royal College under the Royal Decree No. 1223, R.C. 2535, as the Royal College of Physicians of Thailand as a Royal College under the Royal Decree No. 1223, R.C. 2535.

The objectives of the Royal College of Physicians of Thailand are to:

1. Conduct examinations for the specialist degree in academic disciplines related to Medicine.
2. Provide and set the academic standards of professional practice of specialist disciplines where there is a lack of systems and guidelines in the country, including the control of professional conduct in order to maintain and raise the level of professional excellence in all branches of Medicine.
3. Promote education, research and academic exchange in academic disciplines related to Medicine.
4. Organize academic meetings and conducting educational training activities for its members.
5. Set up the centers of communication and exchanges of academic and other activities for its members.
6. Annually and maintain the perpetual status of its members.
7. Establish a good understanding and reconcile any disputes between members and between Medicine, Medicine, Medicine and the College.
8. Establish the authority related to the efficiency of the College, including intellectual property, research in Medicine and other related disciplines.
9. Propagate academic knowledge related to Medicine for the benefit of the public and the College.
10. Defend the interest of the College within the jurisdiction of the Thai Medical Council Act and other regulations associated with the Thai Medical Council.
11. Report the College to the Thai Ministry of Education annually or periodically.

The Royal College of Physicians of Thailand has been upgraded to the status of a Royal College under the Royal Decree No. 1223, R.C. 2535, as the Royal College of Physicians of Thailand as a Royal College under the Royal Decree No. 1223, R.C. 2535.

The objectives of the Royal College of Physicians of Thailand are to:

1. Conduct examinations for the specialist degree in academic disciplines related to Medicine.
2. Provide and set the academic standards of professional practice of specialist disciplines where there is a lack of systems and guidelines in the country, including the control of professional conduct in order to maintain and raise the level of professional excellence in all branches of Medicine.
3. Promote education, research and academic exchange in academic disciplines related to Medicine.
4. Organize academic meetings and conducting educational training activities for its members.
5. Set up the centers of communication and exchanges of academic and other activities for its members.
6. Annually and maintain the perpetual status of its members.
7. Establish a good understanding and reconcile any disputes between members and between Medicine, Medicine, Medicine and the College.
8. Establish the authority related to the efficiency of the College, including intellectual property, research in Medicine and other related disciplines.
9. Propagate academic knowledge related to Medicine for the benefit of the public and the College.
10. Defend the interest of the College within the jurisdiction of the Thai Medical Council Act and other regulations associated with the Thai Medical Council.
11. Report the College to the Thai Ministry of Education annually or periodically.